● To all incoming international students, researchers, and doctors, welcome to Nara Medical University! You are about to embark on an incredible journey, both professionally and personally. My time here was filled with learning opportunities, supported by an amazing team at the Department of General Medicine, who were always willing to share their knowledge and experiences. Be open to the diverse clinical cases you will encounter and make the most of the support from your colleagues and mentors.

Outside of the hospital, Nara offers a unique blend of history, culture, and peaceful surroundings that will leave a lasting impression. Take the time to explore and immerse yourself in the local culture, as it truly enhances the experience.

Most importantly, be curious, ask questions, and embrace every opportunity to learn and grow. This is a special place, and I hope your time here will be as enriching and memorable as mine was. Best of luck on your journey! /Arantxa López/Spain / Researcher
